

LOOK AT A KERNEL OF COFFEE

Break it and note how much of it is chaff. It is this chaff that contains the unpleasant astringent principle (tannin), on account of which coffee drinking does not agree with some people.

Barrington Hall The Steel Coffee

You will taste the difference in the first cupful. The chaff has been removed from this coffee by a wonderful steel-cutting process. Packaged by machinery in sealed tins—it is the only pure coffee, free from dust and tannin-bearing chaff.

NEWS OF OREGON AND THE NORTHWEST.

WILL HUNT IN CANADA.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 30.—The home of "Ovis Fannin," the white mountain sheep named after the late John Fannin, will be invaded by a party of about 25 millionaires next month. A special hunting trip has been arranged by the Hudson's Bay Company that will take the steamer Mount Royal from the Skeena River to the Stickine for the purpose. Assembling here the party will take passage by the Princess Beatrice, August 17, and will be met at Wrangell by the Mount Royal, on which they will travel up the Stickine to Telegraph Creek.

DID NOT SIGN NOTES.

E. J. Carpenter Says No Yakima Men Signed Paper for Smith.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., July 30.—E. J. Carpenter was seen here this morning and asked about the item from Salem, Ore., relative to the consignment of hops to C. J. Smith and the signing of the notes as above mentioned. He said that he did not sign any notes for Smith nor did any one else in Yakima. He said a number of people consigned their hops to him, but some of them got returns as low as 2-cent and some of them got as much as 5 cents. Mr. Carpenter also said that the crop this year in Yakima will be lower than last. The cold spring put the vine back. Offers of 15 cents were made here last Saturday on contracts, but the growers are holding off.

FUNERAL OF OREGON PIONEER.

AURORA, Ore., July 30.—The funeral of Leonard Will who died Friday at his residence here, was held yesterday, services taking place at the grave, Rev. Mr. Cole officiating. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in this section, people coming from miles around to pay their last respects to a man whom everyone liked and admired. Leonard Will was born in Krugshoff, Bavaria, Germany, November 29, 1823. His age at the time of his death was 82 years 7 months 27 days. In 1839 he crossed the Atlantic with his parents and eight brothers. The family made its home in Iowa, and from there moved to Bethel, Mo. At this place he married Triphine Forstner, May 24, 1860, and in 1863 they crossed the plains with ox teams and arrived at Aurora, October 5, the same year. He had since resided here and been engaged in farming and stockraising. He was the father of eight children, five sons and three daughters. All survive him with the exception of one son, who died at the age of 17.

She corroborated Mrs. Corey's statements that Corey had deserted his wife and told how she and her aged mother had several ineffectual attempts to effectual attempts to effect a reconciliation.

Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York.

"Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked. "I do not," she replied.

"Why?" "For the reason," she said, "that he is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home and his associates are not fit companions for a young man of Allan's age. I do not think any New York man is fit to have charge of a boy of his age."

"Do you mean all New York men, Miss Corey?" continued the attorney. "I mean wealthy New York men."

Allan Corey stated that at the time of the parting his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother.

"He said I was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her side."

Several witnesses were introduced to establish the residence in Nevada of the plaintiff, all being citizens.

Mr. Corey was not present.

MAY MAN VESSELS WITH INDIANS.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 30.—Before the end of the summer all of the vessels operated by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company may be manned by Indians. Officers of the company make this statement. They say that applications from more than 200 of these men have been received. A number of Indian machinists from Treadwell have also made application for positions. This, the officers state, will practically end the strike, so far as they are concerned. The Alaska Indians who have been used on the boats have given satisfaction.

AGED MAN'S LEG BROKEN.

FOREST GROVE, Ore., July 30.—Lee Martin, of Dilley, aged 72 years, met with a serious accident Saturday while riding on a wagon. Watching a chain that was dragging, his leg was forced against the end of a piling, breaking it in three places below the knee. Dr. W. P. Via attended him, and says owing to his age the injury is a grave one.

SEASIDE WILL STOP SELLING OF LIQUOR.

SEASIDE, Ore., July 30.—A special meeting of the Council of West Seaside was held Saturday night. Under the original character the sale of liquors is prohibited, but the law is not enforced and liquors are sold at Moore's Hotel, Locksley's Hall and Zeller's bathhouse. When an attempt was made three weeks ago to arrest Moore and Zeller, the authorities found that no penalty had been fixed, therefore the special meeting of the Council was called for July 28, and action taken on the ordinance fixing the penalty at $50 to $200 fine, which had been vetoed by the Mayor. The veto was overruled last Saturday and the ordinance becomes a law in five days.

SALMON SEASON GOOD.

Canneries at Rivers Inlet and Fraser River Will Close This Week.

VANCOUVER, July 30 (Special).—The salmon canneries at Rivers Inlet will commence shutting down this week after having experienced one of the most profitable seasons in recent years. The pack for Rivers Inlet district will be about 125,000 cases. The run of salmon on the Fraser continues good and the total pack will be much larger than was anticipated.

SALEM, July 30.—It develops that the growers of Oregon and the North Yakima district, of Washington, who entrusted their hops to the extent of about 3000 bales, to C. J. Smith, a former hop dealer of Portland, on consignment, were not the sole losers in the transaction. It is stated by dealers here, who claim to know all about the terms of the consignments, that E. J. Carpenter, a wealthy hopgrower of North Yakima, indorsed the notes for Mr. Smith, upon which several thousand dollars in advance money was obtained, and he has been compelled to redeem these notes. Returns of only 2-cent were made upon the entire shipment, it is understood, and many of the growers did not even receive an advance upon their hops upon consignment.

POLITICAL SCHEME

the congressional leaders concerning this year's congressional campaign. Mr. Roosevelt, it was announced, thoroughly approved the plans of the campaign committee, and those plans, ran a further announcement, contemplated a stand-pat declaration on the tariff question.

It is rather hard to reconcile this situation with Mr. Roosevelt's past attitude in the matter of tariff revision, but there has come from Oyster Bay no intimation that his position has been misrepresented. At the headquarters in this city of the democratic congressional committee there is jubilation over the prospect that the republican management will come out squarely with a stand-pat declaration. They profess to see in this democracy's opportunity. The trouble with the democratic management is inability to agree upon a tariff program. Some want a very conservative promise that the most glaring abuses of the Dingley schedules will be corrected, while others insist the time is ripe to go before the country committed to sweeping reductions. It may be decided to adopt the Hancock theory that the tariff is a local issue, and let each democratic candidate for Congress present the question to his audiences in whatever light may best agree with local sentiment. There would be nothing irregular in such a course. The only authorized democratic tariff doctrine is that which was written into the last democratic national platform. There will be no official way in which that doctrine can be changed until the next national convention convenes, and if there are going to be departures from the platform, declaration any individual democrat has just as much right to write a tariff plank as has the congressional committee.

APPEARANCES

Often a person is sized up by his appearance; by the tone that surrounds him. And more often a business house is sized up by the stationary it uses. A cheap letter head or a poor bill head gives a mighty poor first impression and makes business harder to transact. Good printing costs no more than poor printing. The first impression is half the battle in business. You wouldn't employ a "sloppy" salesman; why put up with "sloppy" stationery, that gives a wrong impression of the importance of your business. Let us do your printing and help you to make that ten strike.
